

IT'S BACK!

ADULT RELIGIOUS SCHOOL

That's right, Adult Religious School is back! Last year's program brought over 45 people together to learn more about their Jewish heritage. This year you can be one of them! Call the office now to enroll in the Winter Semester.

Images of God - January 12

In Judaism, we have many metaphors for God, each with unique implications for our own spiritual lives. Join us as we explore these metaphors, as well as our own images of God, in an attempt to better understand our individual and national relationship with God.

What Happens When I Die? Jewish Views of the Afterlife - January 19

An exploration of various Jewish beliefs about life after death, with an eye towards understanding how these beliefs might help us live more meaningful lives.

Textual Encounters I: Torah Commentary - January 26

Rabbinic Torah commentaries not only teach us insights into the Torah based on the wisdom of Jewish tradition, they also teach us how to read the Torah ourselves and develop our own insights. In a guided study session, we will explore the commentary of Rashi, the premier Jewish commentator, and learn to see the Torah in a whole new way.

The Problem of Evil - February 2

A riveting discussion of the age old question: Why do bad things happen to good people?

Textual Encounters II : Responsa Literature - February 9

When our ever-changing world presents us with new questions of Jewish law and practice, rabbis address these questions by writing a responsa, a legal brief in which the question is explored and an answer given. In a guided study session we will read a recent responsa by a Conservative rabbi addressing the question: May one pray and/or constitute a minyan over the internet?

*All classes will be from 7:30pm -8:45pm.
